From the Paris Gazette, dated April 3.

Rome, March 9.

THE 4th of this Month, Father Rego a Jesuite, who acts as Resident of Portugal, presented to the Pope a Letter from the King of Portugal, to notify to his Holiness the death of the Queen Dowager of England. A private Congregation was held that Day, to consider how to deal with the Superiors and Directors of the National Churches dell' Anima of the Germans and St. Antonio of the Portugueze; which Churches are kept shut, because the said Superiours will not submit to give an Account of their Revenues to the Congregation appointed to visit them; but no final Resolution was taken thereupon.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 3.

Warsaw, March 12. The Nobility of this part of the Country have sent 2 Deputies to King Augustus, to represent to him, that they are ready to furnish his auxiliary Troops with Provisions, according as he had order'd by his circular Letters; but that they cannot possibly pay the Contributions of three Crowns which M. Krigern has in his Name demanded of every House. We have Advice from Saxony, that Prince Galiczen being arriv'd at Dresden from Vienna before the Battle of Frawstad, had made great Complaints about the Imprisonment of M. Patkul the Czar's Ambassador, and entred Protestations against the Ministers and Council of State of the Electorate, wherein he declar'd that the Czar his Master would at a proper Time take his Revenge for that Affront, especially because contrary to the Law of Nations they had open'd secret Letters. The Advices from Lithuania say, that the King of Sweden is at Zoludko, with the great Treasurer of Lithuania Sapieha; that he has divided his Troops into small Bodies of 500 or 1000 Men each, for their subsisting the more commodiously, and guarding the Passages the more easily; he has sent a certain Number of Men to guard the Passes of Augustow and Raygrdot, on the Edge of Podlachia between Lithuania and the Ducal Prussia. King Stanislaus, with the Palatin of Kiovia, and the Commissary General of the Army, is at Wasilisko; and Prince Sapieha, with the Lord Chamberlain of Lithuania and the Starost Bobrusko and Borizewski, are at Raudani, half Way between Wilna and Grodno. 'Tis said the Nobility of the District of Kiva near Raudani, have acknowledg'd King Stanislaus. Prince Radzervil Great Chancellor of Lithuania, is retir'd to his Dutchy of Olyka in Volhinia. The Army of the Muscovites continues in the Camp at Grodno, where they want Provisions, and expect Succours that are far off them. The Czar's Artillery, which was at Poloczk on the Duna, is march'd towards Smolensko, where that Prince is with Seventeen Thousand Foot, which General Czermet brought to him from Livonia. The Muscovites are providing stores of Ammunition at Brzeze for the Camp at Grodno, where they will not yet believe the Defeat of King Augustus's Army by General Reinschild in great Poland. 'Tis talk'd the King of Sweden has detach'd against Mazeppa General of the Cossacks 6000 Swedes and a like number of Poles, under the Command of M. Potoski Palatine of Kiovia. Letters of the 7th Instant from Cracow advise, that the Magistrates of that City, had nominate Deputies to desire King Augustus to lessen the very great Contributions, he had demanded of the Inhabitants, amounting to 22062 Florins Weekly.

Hamburg, March 19. Letters from Copenhagen confirm, that all necessary Preparations were made at Carelscroon, for transporting by Sea to Poalnd next Month, a Reinforcement of 7000 Swedes. King Augustus had desir'd to hire some of the King of Denmark's Regiments, but 'twas believ'd he would not obtain them, because his Danish Majesty is cautious of giving the King of Sweden any Cause of Complaint. They write from Dresden the 17th Instant, that an Officer who had been sent to General Reinschild, to regulate with him the Ransom of the Prisoners taken in the Battle of Frawstad, being return'd had reported that that General demanded 3 Crowns for each Soldier, 15 for Ensigns; and proportionably for higher Officers; and that besides they should oblige themselves ſelves not to ſerve againſt the King of Sweden during the whole Courſe of this War; But that 'twas believ'd King Auguſtus would not accept of thoſe Conditions. General Schuylenbourg, who went to Poland to give King Auguſtus an Account of the Battle of Frawſtad, return'd thither the 16th, and reported that he had been forbidden to publiſh the particulars of that Battle, leaſt he ſhould raiſe Animoſities among the Officers, who throw the Blame on each other. They beat up for new Levies in Saxony, and are preeparing a new Train of Artillery at Dreſden.

London, April 19.

The Fleet of Merchant Ships outward bound from the Downes prepar'd to Sail the 16th, the Wind being then at Eaſt; but the Wind being at W. N. W. the 17th, they could not ſail: It having been Eaſterly yeſterday it is believ'd they are ſail'd, with their Convoys, which are very ſtrong.
